#CROFTONREADS

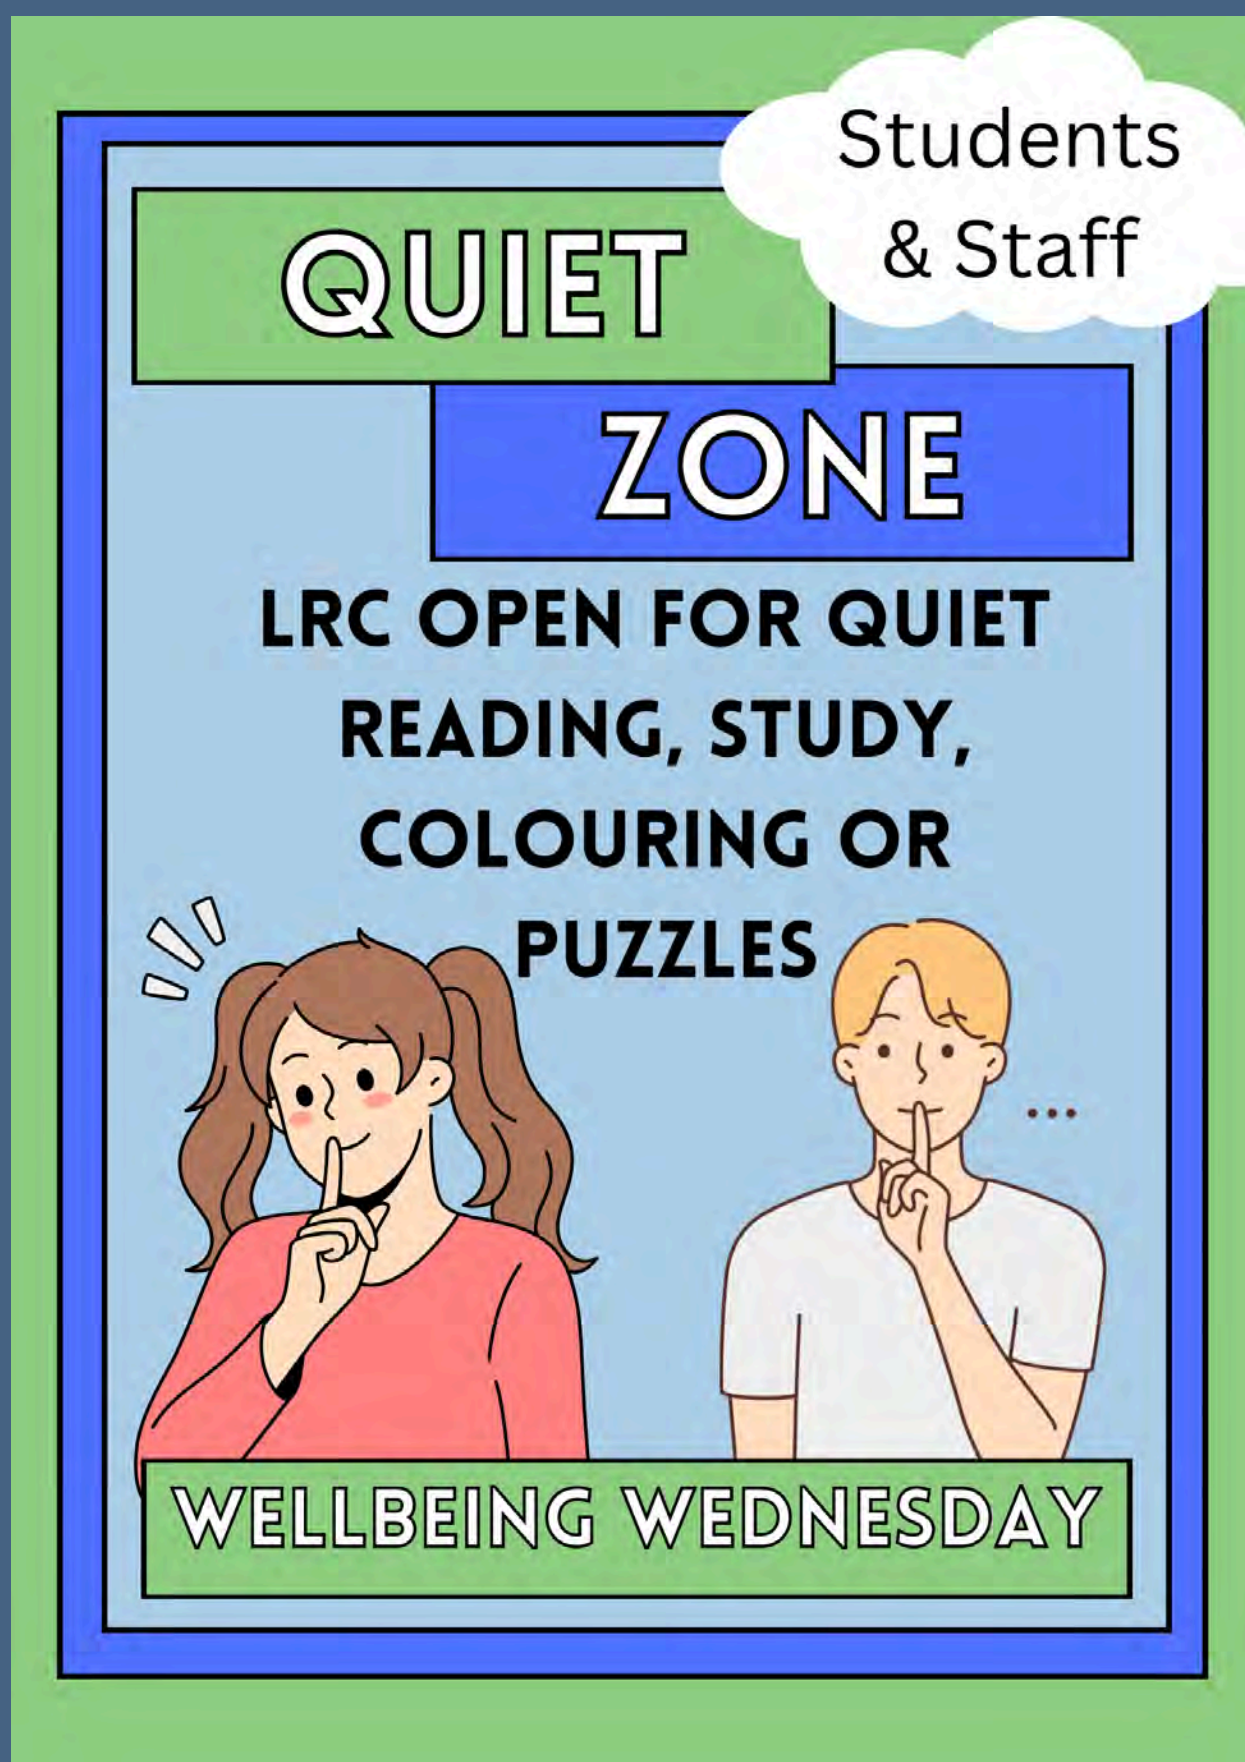

At Crofton we are lucky to have a fabulous LRC space, home to a great choice of books so that we can all read something that we find interesting and engaging.

There is a great team of Student Librarians who work at their own desk in the LRC during break and lunch times. They are there to help you borrow and return your books, as well as perhaps help you choose your next read!

The LRC is open every day and is first-come, first-served for a seat.

Each year group has a priority day for lunchtimes.

Eating is allowed in the LRC, but is a privilege and under constant review so make sure you know where the bins are!

On Wednesdays the LRC is a reading-only, quiet zone.

In Year 7 and 8 you have a LRC lesson as one of your English classes every fortnight. Your LRC book is part of your school equipment and needs to be with you every day in the same way as your pencil case and your water bottle.

We use Reading Cloud to log our books in and out of the LRC.

In September you will be given a login to be able to search for, reserve, renew and review your books

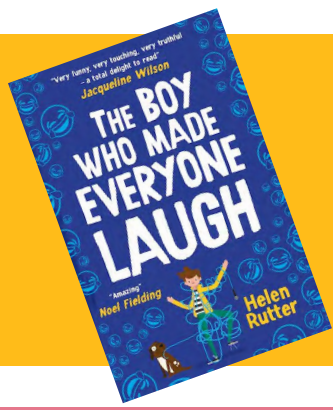

We also have a digital library that you can access at home to access ebooks, audiobooks and magazines. We will give you a demo and your login details in September.
